Dear Jack:

I would like to thank you and your teams for the exceptional service that has been provided over the past few years for my Carlyle projects coast-to-coast.

I have found ProHome to be the leader in the category and cannot say enough for the value provided to our developer and buyer closing processes. I have had the opportunity to work with other firms who have tried to provide similar services and frankly they really do not even compare.

What differentiates you from others are not only your highly trained and knowledgeable staff, but the back-office support and superb back-up documentation. There is no question that I would definitely use your services on any future projects. Please feel free to provide my contact information to anyone who might be considering ProHome – I would welcome the opportunity to be a professional reference.

I trust your business continues to expand and hope that we can work together again soon.

Regards,

Mark Beliczky
